“SHARE Atlanta IS” Brochure

- One of SHARE Atlanta's most common resources provided by caregivers.
- Provides information on our meetings and programs; explains how to obtain additional materials.
- Includes monthly topics, meeting expectations, meeting guidelines.

“No Heartbeat” Brochure

- Concise, easy-to-read information on what to expect in the hospital after a loss.
- Supports families and those who care for them in their love for their baby with topics such as keepsakes, naming, pictures, etc.
- Summarizes possible initial family reactions, coming home, the initial grieving process and hope for the future.
- Summarizes all of our resources.

SHARE Atlanta's Survival Kit

The Survival Kit is an envelope of concise information to help parents “survive” the first 12 hours after their loss.

- validates the feelings and reactions they are experiencing.
- begins educating parents on the grieving process.

Survival Kit Contents Include:

- Supportive note from SHARE Atlanta.
- “SHARE Atlanta IS” and “No Heartbeat” Brochure - explained above.
- “Be Truthful in Grief” – brochure for family and friends to help them understand what parents are going through and how they can best support them.
- “Angel Garden with Memorial Bricks” brochure: garden in Sandy Springs, GA
- Men/Women Responses to Grief
- Sympathy Card - customized card from the hospital, church, etc. staff expressing their sympathy. (optional)

Samples of some of these materials are on our website.

SHARE Atlanta's Process and Other Information

Process to Order SA Materials

- All materials are sold at cost. Shipping is free.
- To request a materials order form or to order materials e-mail (quickest method) Lynne Anderson: Jbfb2@aol.com or call and leave your name and phone number for a return phone call.
- Return order to Lynne Anderson (not to our mailing address-call or email Lynne for details) and send payment to address on our order form. (An invoice can be sent, as needed).
- Orders will be filled within one to two weeks and mailed directly to requestor.

Process for Parents to Contact SHARE Atlanta

- When parents experience a loss, the caregiver provides them with SA's “Survival Kit,” 5Bs Blanket of Love items and card, and/or SA brochures.
- Parent calls us or emails us from SA's website.
- A “Parent's Packet” will be sent within 72 hours.
- Packet includes all meeting locations and times, a booklet with information about: SA, the grieving process, SA's forums, a booklist, and (CBRS, multiple loss, etc. depending upon their experience).
- Parents will receive emailed SA Updates and mini-newsletters if they request them.
- Return phone calls or email support can be made if requested by parent.

Julie, one of our members wrote to us: "I believe everyone here (at the group) would have made it. The real question is-who would we be now if we didn't have SHARE Atlanta. I know for a fact that I would be a very different person, and I'm glad I'm where I am and not in that other place."
